Required Materials

There are no required materials for jazz ensembles other than your instruments (and all necessary gear for rehearsals/performance, including reeds, mutes, doubles, amplifier cables, etc.—however, amplifiers, chairs, music stands, pianos, and drum kits will be provided for all on campus rehearsals and performances), a folder to keep ensemble music organized, and a pencil to make notes on sheet music. All necessary music will be provided by the instructor. All sheet music must be returned to the instructor immediately after concerts and at the end of the last rehearsal of the semester.

Course Description

The University of Utah Jazz Combo program includes multiple small jazz ensembles. These jazz combos provide students with the experiences necessary to learn the fundamental techniques of small ensemble jazz performance and improvisation. Admission to the jazz combo program as well as specific, individual ensemble assignments are determined by audition only. Audition dates, times, requirements, and sign-up information will be posted on the official University of Utah School of Music Ensemble Auditions Page, found here: <https://music.utah.edu/ensembles/index.php#jazz>

There will be weekly workshop-style rehearsals, culminating in at least one major public semesterly performance. Ensemble meetings will include song memorization, sight-reading, and detailed rehearsals of great works from the jazz canon as well as full-group, sectional, and individual ear-training, rhythmic, listening, and improvisation exercises. The focus of jazz combos is on the development of the repertoire and skills necessary to perform at a professional level in the small jazz ensemble idiom in mainstream jazz styles.

There are no officially required prerequisite courses for this ensemble, however, a knowledge of jazz theory and harmony will help students benefit most from the course, and therefore Jazz Theory and Jazz Improvisation courses will be advantageous for students to complete as prerequisites. Additionally, students should have a passion for jazz and learning, a strong work ethic, and an open mind.

University of Utah jazz ensembles typically perform twice per semester on campus. Attendance and participation at all on-campus concerts is required for all ensemble participants. In a case where a student cannot attend a rehearsal or performance due to a bona fide emergency such as a medical issue, the affected student will be required to arrange for a substitute musician of equal or greater ability to cover their parts for the rehearsal(s) and/or performance(s) the student must miss. There may be occasional opportunities for the ensemble to perform off campus, including but not limited to at local all-ages music venues, private events, and/or collegiate jazz festivals. All information regarding off-campus concerts will be distributed to students well beforehand to allow for planning. The official University of Utah School of Music calendar listing all on-campus concerts (including all required on-campus Jazz Area ensemble performances) can be viewed here: <https://music.utah.edu/events/>

Course Rationale

Since its inception, jazz has been primarily dominated by small ensemble performance practices. Students' musicianship skills may be greatly enhanced by participating in a small jazz ensemble, since jazz combo playing requires sharp ears, impeccable balance and intonation, expressivity, stylistic sensitivity, improvisational skills, and a strong command of rhythm, time-feel, and swing. Jazz combos provide students with an intimate musical laboratory in which they can develop their jazz improvisation and general musicianship skills. Additionally, many students will become public school band directors in charge of jazz combos upon graduating. Therefore, it is vital that students gain practical experience in a small jazz ensemble so that they are equipped to teach in this format after completing their degrees.

Course Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Display an improved understanding of the small jazz ensemble medium and its literature
2. Demonstrate improved abilities all around as an ensemble player, including in the areas of rhythmic gelling, balance, blend, intonation, articulation, phrasing, accompanying ("comping"), improvisation, etc.
3. Demonstrate enhanced musical confidence and leadership skills
4. Teach and lead a jazz combo with competence and authority, following the instructor's model
5. Apply conventional swing, bebop, modal, and post-bop/hard bop vocabulary while improvising over standard jazz repertoire in an appropriate and creative manner
6. Perform competently and compellingly in mainstream jazz styles
7. Learn songs from the body of standard jazz repertoire in an efficient and comprehensive manner
8. Understand and explain basic jazz scale/chord theory using appropriate terminology and apply this knowledge to jazz improvisation in practical performance and teaching situations

9. Feel inspired, motivated, and encouraged to continue to improvise and develop their creative and spontaneous music-making skills for the duration of their lives

Teaching and Learning Methods

This course is an ensemble, and therefore most of the class time will consist of learning and rehearsing jazz standards. However, this group also includes regular ensemble warm-ups, such as group balance/blend, intonation, scale, theory, and ear-training exercises. Rehearsals may also include group instruction and guidance regarding jazz improvisation and scale-chord theory.

Jazz combos only meet once a week, and therefore there is only a limited amount of time that the band has to learn and polish its repertoire before the semesterly concerts. This means that individual ensemble members will be always held to the highest possible standards of musicianship. Jazz combo members will be expected to display the same level of self-discipline and individual and collective responsibility as professional jazz musicians. Individual practice and preparation are essential to the success of this ensemble. It is also expected that all students will display the utmost respect for themselves, the music, the university, their peers, the instructor, and any guest artists at all times. Therefore, all jazz combo members will be expected to show up to all rehearsals on time, with all previously assigned tunes/parts completely learned for each meeting so that rehearsal time will be maximally efficient and productive. This is essential because rehearsals should be focused on developing ensemble cohesion and polishing the music, not on individual tune memorization. Failure to show up with all tunes/parts prepared for each rehearsal may result in a lower course grade for ensemble members.

General University Policies

1. The Americans with Disabilities Act. The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations in this class, reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Center for Disability Services, 162 Olpin Union Building, (801) 581-5020. CDS will work with you and the instructor to make arrangements for accommodations. All written information in this course can be made available in an alternative format with prior notification to the Center for Disability Services.
 - Given the nature of this course, attendance is required, and adjustments cannot be granted to allow non-attendance. However, if you need to seek an ADA accommodation to request an exception to this attendance policy due to a disability, please contact the Center for Disability and Access (CDA). CDA will work with us to determine what, if any, ADA accommodations are reasonable and appropriate.
2. University Safety Statement. The University of Utah values the safety of all campus community members. To report suspicious activity or to request a courtesy escort, call campus police at 801-585-COPS (801-585-2677). You will receive important emergency alerts and safety messages regarding campus safety via text message. For more information regarding safety and to view available training resources, including helpful videos, visit safeu.utah.edu.

3. Addressing Sexual Misconduct. Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender (which includes sexual orientation and gender identity/expression) is a civil rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, color, religion, age, status as a person with a disability, veteran's status or genetic information. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you are encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 135 Park Building, 801-581-8365, or the Office of the Dean of Students, 270 Union Building, 801-581-7066. For support and confidential consultation, contact the Center for Student Wellness, 426 SSB, 801-581-7776. To report to the police, contact the Department of Public Safety, 801-585-2677(COPS).

4. COVID-19 Resources.

The University of Utah has implemented reasonable health and safety protocols, taking into account recommendations by local, state and national public health authorities, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

For the most up-to-date information on COVID-19 protocol, please refer to <https://coronavirus.utah.edu/>.

5. Drop/Withdrawal Policies. Students may drop a course within the first two weeks of a given semester without any penalties. Students may officially withdraw (W) from a class or all classes after the drop deadline through the midpoint of a course. A "W" grade is recorded on the transcript and appropriate tuition/fees are assessed. The grade "W" is not used in calculating the student's GPA. For deadlines to withdraw from full-term, first, and second session classes, see the U's Academic Calendar.

7. Student Mental Health Resources

- Rates of burnout, anxiety, depression, isolation, and loneliness have noticeably increased during the pandemic. If you need help, reach out for campus mental health resources, including free counseling, trainings and other support.
- Consider participating in a Mental Health First Aid or other wellness-themed training provided by our Center for Student Wellness and sharing these opportunities with your peers, teaching assistants and department colleagues

8. Diverse Supports for Students. Your success at the University of Utah is important to all of us here! If you feel like you need extra support in academics, overcoming personal difficulties, or finding community, the U is here for you.

Student Support Services (TRIO)

TRIO federal programs are targeted to serve and assist low-income individuals, first-generation college students, and individuals with disabilities.

Student Support Services (SSS) is a TRIO program for current or incoming undergraduate university students who are seeking their first bachelor's degree and need academic assistance and other services to be successful at the University of Utah.

Undocumented Students

Immigration is a complex phenomenon with broad impact—those who are directly affected by it, as well as those who are indirectly affected by their relationships with family members, friends, and loved ones. If your immigration status presents obstacles that prevent you from engaging in specific activities or fulfilling specific course criteria, confidential arrangements may be requested from the Dream Center.

Arrangements with the Dream Center will not jeopardize your student status, your financial aid, or any other part of your residence. The Dream Center offers a wide range of resources to support undocumented students (with and without DACA) as well as students from mixed-status families.

Inclusivity at the U

The Office for Inclusive Excellence is here to engage, support, and advance an environment fostering the values of respect, diversity, equity, inclusivity, and academic excellence for students in our increasingly global campus community. They also handle reports of bias in the classroom as outlined below:

Bias or hate incidents consist of speech, conduct, or some other form of expression or action that is motivated wholly or in part by prejudice or bias whose impact discriminates, demeans, embarrasses, assigns stereotypes, harasses, or excludes individuals because of their race, color, ethnicity, national origin, language, sex, size, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability, age, or religion.

Additional Course Policies and Policy Details

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes, lessons, rehearsals, and required performances and may be dropped from the course for excessive absences. Students should contact the instructor in advance of an excused absence to receive written permission and to arrange to make up missed work or examinations. In order to truly learn, earn a good grade, and benefit from this course, regular, punctual attendance is absolutely essential and mandatory. Discussing and playing music are the key activities and focal points of this course. Students simply cannot effectively listen, play, and learn if they do not attend class regularly and punctually. Students are responsible for all course materials/practicing assignments missed due to absence or tardiness. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class period. If a student arrives late, the student is responsible for letting the instructor know after class has ended; otherwise, the student will be marked absent.

In a case where a student cannot attend a rehearsal or performance due to a bona fide emergency such as a medical issue, the affected student will be required to arrange for a substitute musician of equal or greater ability to cover their parts for the rehearsal(s) and/or performance(s) the student must miss. There may be occasional opportunities for the ensemble to perform off campus, including but not limited to at local all-ages music venues, private events, and/or collegiate jazz festivals. All information regarding off-campus concerts will be distributed to students well beforehand to allow for planning.

The official University of Utah School of Music calendar listing all on-campus concerts (including all required on-campus Jazz Area ensemble performances) can be viewed here: <https://music.utah.edu/events/>

Tardiness

Musicians should be in their seats with their assignments learned and ready to play at least five minutes prior to class. Three unexcused late arrivals (in excess of 15 minutes after the scheduled class start time) will be treated as equivalent to one unexcused absence for the purposes of calculating final semester grades.

Absence/Sick Policy

Alternate assignments will be provided if a student cannot attend class at the scheduled time of a face-to-face, hybrid, or synchronous course because they do not pass COVID screening protocols, they need to self-isolate because of exposure, or they become sick with COVID and are unable to complete assignments or exams by the original due date. Please note that in such cases, students must provide instructors with documentation, such as positive COVID test or note from a qualified medical professional. If a student misses an online synchronous or in-person class meeting, either the instructor will provide the student with access to a recording of the lecture/demonstration materials missed and/or an alternative assignment will be given to the student via email. Students must make every effort possible to communicate with the instructor to facilitate finding solutions for absences due to illness.

The following guidelines apply to recordings of course lectures and materials:

*The use of recordings will enable you to have access to class lectures, group discussions, etc. in the event you have to miss a synchronous or face to face class meeting due to illness or other extenuating circumstance. Our use of such technology is governed by the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and the University of Utah's intellectual property policies. A recording of class sessions will be kept and stored by the university, in accordance with FERPA and University of Utah policies. Your instructor will not share the recordings of your class activities outside of course participants, which include your fellow students, teaching assistants, or graduate assistants, and any guest faculty or community-based learning partners with whom we may engage during a class session. You may not share recordings outside of this course.

Academic Integrity

Members of the university community must uphold the University of Utah Student Code's shared values of honesty, integrity, and mutual respect in our interactions and relationships. In this regard, academic integrity is fundamental in our actions, as any act of dishonesty conflicts as much with academic achievement as with the values of honesty and integrity. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to: cheating, plagiarism (including self-plagiarism), and collusion; submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person; taking an examination for another person; any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student; or the attempt to commit such acts. All violations of Academic Integrity will be reported to the appropriate person within the university administration.

Classroom Decorum

It is important to maintain respect for the subject material, the academic process, the instructor, the university, and all fellow students at all times. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a mature manner in accordance with the University of Utah School of Music Student Handbook. Disrespectful or inappropriately argumentative behavior directed toward the instructor, university guests, and/or other students is not acceptable and will not be tolerated.

Links to information for music students, including the School of Music Student handbooks for undergraduate and graduate students may be found on this webpage:

<https://music.utah.edu/students/music-majors.php>

Electronic Devices Policy

With the exception of the technology needed to access course materials, all electronic devices are to be turned completely off for the duration of each class/lesson/rehearsal, unless they are being used directly for a task assigned by the instructor (e.g., a metronome, tuner, or lead sheet viewed on a phone). This includes all cell phones, smart phones, tablets, laptop computers, gaming devices, and all other handheld personal electronic devices. Though sometimes useful, these items are incredibly distracting in the educational environment and they are inappropriate for the private lesson setting. Also, recent research suggests that students retain information better when they hand-write notes as opposed to typing them.

Email Communication Policy

Please be mindful of proper email etiquette when writing to me. Although my email policies are strict and may seem capricious, they are not without good reason. Developing and maintaining professional email etiquette is very important. It will help you greatly with your academic and professional careers. Here are some basic guidelines to help you:

- Check the syllabus and the University of Utah website thoroughly for the answer to your question(s) before writing to me. The answers to most questions students ask me via email are available on the course syllabus or online.
 - Some links to student resources:
 - School of Music website: <https://music.utah.edu/>
 - College of Fine Arts website: <https://www.finearts.utah.edu/>
 - School of Music Student Handbook: <https://music.utah.edu/students/music-majors.php#currentstudents>
 - College of Fine Arts Advising link: <https://www.finearts.utah.edu/students/current-undergraduates/academic-advising>
 - School of Music audition information: <https://music.utah.edu/ensembles/index.php#jazz>
- Include a relevant email subject in all emails to me.
- Always address instructors/professors as “Dr.” or “Professor” followed by their last name, unless they’ve given you permission to address them by their first name only.
- Identify yourself and identify who you are writing to by name in every email. Begin your email with “Dear...,” or “Hello...,” followed by the name of the person you are addressing. Be sure to sign your email with your name. Please Note: I will not answer emails if they do not contain a subject, are not addressed to me, and/or do not contain a student’s name. Again, this may sound like I am being exceptionally picky, but these stipulations are not without good reason. As mentioned above, I want you to learn and practice good email etiquette. Secondly, I have wasted a lot of my time sorting through emails from unidentified students, or that were sent without a subject and/or to the wrong instructor.

- If emailing regarding auditions, always include your full name, your major/minor, and your lessons status.
- Be polite, concise, and clear about what you are asking. Being rude never helps! Plus, you never know what kind of day someone is having. The person you are writing to may have just suffered an injury, illness, loss in the family, etc. so politeness is extremely important when dealing with email communications.
- Use proper grammar, punctuation, usage, and do not use slang. Always put your best foot forward when communicating with people in academic and professional environments. Few things lower a teacher's (or a potential employer's) view of you more quickly than reading an email from you that is full of slang and grammatical errors.
- Try to update your email account so your name appears on your "alias" instead of your university ID number. Look for the "settings" icon in your email client to update your profile to solve this issue.

Assignments

The primary daily/weekly assignment for this course is for students to practice their instruments, memorize the assigned jazz standards, and prepare the required music for each rehearsal. Jazz combos only meet once a week, and therefore there is only a limited amount of time that the band has to learn and polish its repertoire before the semesterly concerts. This means that individual ensemble members will be always held to the highest possible standards of musicianship. Jazz combo members will be expected to display the same level of individual and collective responsibility as professional jazz musicians. Individual practice and preparation are essential to the success of this ensemble. It is also expected that all students will display the utmost respect for themselves, the music, the university, their peers, the instructor, and any guest artists at all times. All jazz combo members will be expected to show up to all rehearsals on time, with all previously assigned tunes/parts completely learned for each rehearsal so that rehearsal time will be maximally efficient. This is essential because rehearsals should be focused on ensemble cohesion and polishing the music, not on individual tune memorization. Failure to show up with all tunes/parts prepared for each rehearsal may result in a lower course grade for ensemble members.

The official University of Utah School of Music calendar listing all on-campus concerts (including all required on-campus Jazz Area ensemble performances) can be viewed here: <https://music.utah.edu/events/>

If the university is required to switch to online-only classes due to governmental regulations imposed due to public health emergencies, such as a surge in COVID-19, the following assignment(s) policies will take effect in lieu of in-person rehearsals and performances:

Transcriptions:

One of the best ways to learn and absorb new vocabulary is to transcribe improvised solos performed by jazz masters. Over the course of the semester, students will transcribe one solo. Solos for transcription should be selected from recordings of major jazz artists active during the time period of the 1930s–1960s. Please seek the instructor’s approval (via email) of your artist and recording selection for your transcriptions before beginning the assignments.

For transcriptions:

1. Select a solo and get written approval (via email) from the instructor
2. Solos should be between 24-36 measures in length (this means you should transcribe 1 chorus of a 32-bar jazz standard or 2–3 choruses of a 12-bar blues)
3. Write down the transcription by hand or by using music notation software; also include graphical analysis on the musical score
4. Write a one-page minimum (double spaced) analysis in which you explain what you think the soloist is thinking about, and why (be sure to refer to specific measures by number as evidence for your claims in the analysis)
5. Submit your written analyzed transcription and written prose analysis on the day the transcription is due
6. A sample transcription with written prose analysis will be provided by the instructor

Grading Policies

Rubric: For all jazz ensembles, lessons, theory classes, improvisation classes, and other performance-based courses the grading rubric for assignments and performance activities will be based on the following chart (decimals may be used):

Category	4 (“A”) Excellent	3 (“B”) Good or Acceptable	2 (“C”) Barely or Somewhat Acceptable	1 (“D” or “F”) Unacceptable
1. Tone Quality	Tone is consistently focused, clear, and centered throughout the range of the instrument. Tone has professional quality.	Tone is focused, clear, and centered through the normal playing range of the instrument. Extremes in range sometimes cause tone to be less controlled.	Tone is often focused, clear, and centered, but sometimes the tone is uncontrolled in the normal playing range. Extremes in range are usually uncontrolled.	The tone is often not focused, clear, or centered regardless of the range being played, significantly detracting from the overall performance.

2. Rhythm	The beat is secure and the rhythms are accurate for the style of music being played.	The beat is secure and the rhythms are mostly accurate. There are a few duration errors, but these do not detract from the overall performance.	The beat is somewhat erratic. Some rhythms are accurate. Frequent or repeated duration errors. Rhythm problems occasionally detract from the overall performance.	The beat is usually erratic and rhythms are seldom accurate, detracting significantly from the overall performance.
3. Pitch	Virtually no errors. Pitch is very accurate.	An occasional isolated error, but most of the time pitch is accurate and secure.	Some accurate pitches, but there are frequent and/or repeated errors.	Very few accurate or secure pitches.
4. Dynamics	Dynamic levels are obvious, consistent, and an appropriate interpretation of the style of music being played.	Dynamic levels are typically appropriate and consistent.	Dynamic levels fluctuate but can be discerned.	Attention to dynamic levels is not obvious.
5. Phrasing	Phrasing is always consistent and sensitive to the style of music being played.	Phrasing is usually consistent and sensitive to the style of music being played.	Phrasing is usually consistent and occasionally sensitive to the style of music being played.	Phrasing is rarely consistent and/or rarely sensitive to musical style.
6. Expression and Style	Performs with a creative nuance and style in response to the music with little coaching.	Shows some style and with nuance and style that is appropriate for the piece.	Only occasional display of nuance and style that is appropriate for the piece.	Rarely demonstrates expression and style. Just plays the notes.
7. Note Accuracy	Notes are consistently accurate.	An occasional inaccurate note is played, but does not detract from overall performance.	A few inaccurate notes are played, detracting somewhat from the overall performance.	Wrong notes consistently detract from the performance.
8. Articulation	Secure attacks. Articulations are always noticeable, clean, controlled, pleasantly varied, and stylistically appropriate.	Attacks are usually secure. Articulations are almost always noticeable, clean, controlled, pleasantly varied, and stylistically appropriate.	Attacks are rarely secure. 30–50% of the time, articulations are noticeable, clean, controlled, pleasantly varied, and stylistically appropriate.	Few secure attacks. Less than 30% of the time, articulations are noticeable, clean, controlled, pleasantly varied, and stylistically appropriate.

9. Style	All style marking were played well and accurately. Made music more than notes and rhythm.	Most style markings were played well and accurately. May have missed one or two, but did not distract from overall style.	Failed to play several style markings accurately. Style of piece was barely recognizable.	Little or no attention was given to style markings. Style of piece was not recognizable.
10. Memorization*	90–100% of the piece or musical exercise or playing assignment was memorized and played accurately. There are no false starts, fumbles, or stumbles while playing the assigned part, song, scale, exercise, etc.	75–89% of the piece or musical exercise or playing assignment was memorized and played accurately. *Please note the following guidelines and definitions regarding the memorization of jazz performance assignments:

To truly “know” or memorize a jazz tune means:

1. You have memorized the melody and can play it in time on your instrument (although playing the melody under tempo is acceptable for certain circumstances, especially for bassists playing bebop heads, for example).
2. You have memorized the chord changes and can play the chord progression to the song on piano or guitar AND/OR walk bass lines and arpeggiate the chords on your instrument.
3. You can notate the song on the spot by writing out the melody and the chord changes as chord symbols in lead sheet format.
4. You can talk through the song chord by chord or phrase by phrase in concert pitch, in your instrument’s key, and/or using roman numerals.
5. You can transpose the song (play the song in a few other keys) on the spot (at least at a slower tempo, phrase by phrase).
