

Martin Novak is a photographer and an interdisciplinary media artist. Received his BFA in Photography and Intermedia Sculpture from University of Utah, Master of Fine Arts in Studio Arts and Master of Arts in Art Education from University of Illinois Urbana Champaign. Mr. Novak teaches Art and Arts and Technology courses in traditional and digital photography, computer arts, web design and interdisciplinary courses as Assistant Professor at the Department of Art and Art History.

His alternative photography work was featured in The Book of Alternative Photographic Processes. His work was also exhibited in Chicago's I Space gallery, Spaces gallery in Cleveland, Utah Museum of Fine Arts, solo and group exhibitions sponsored by Salt Lake City Arts Council. His work is also in collection of the College of Business Illini Center in Chicago. Mr. Novak has been collaborating on web design and graphics projects for private and public organizations.