

Kara Dassel, PhD, FGSA, FAGHE, FAHSE is an professor and Assistant Dean of the Gerontology Interdisciplinary Program in the College of Nursing at the University of Utah. Dassel earned her doctoral degree in Gerontology from the University of Kentucky and completed a post-doctoral fellowship in the Neuropsychology and Neuroimaging Laboratory at Barrow Neurological Institute. She is a Fellow in the Gerontological Society of America, the Academy for Gerontology in Higher Education, and the Academy of Health Science Educators. Her research interests focus on Alzheimer's disease and related dementias (ARD), end-of-life care planning, and caregiver health outcomes. With funding from the National Alzheimer's Association and the National Institute on Aging, she and her research team are conducting an online advance care planning interventions for persons with ARD and their family members. Dassel is a member of the editorial boards of The Gerontologist, Educational Gerontology, and the Journal of the Academy of Health Science Educators. On a community level, Dassel has served on the professional advisory board of State Chapters of the Alzheimer's Association since 2015.