COMM 1610-004 | Spring 2023 | Canvas + 2-3:20 p.m. Tuesdays, LNCO 2120 (Reading Room)

Professor: Glen Feighery

Contact: Canvas message (preferred) or glen.feighery@utah.edu

Overview

Required Materials and Resources

- ▶ The Associated Press Stylebook. Buy it at the U Bookstore, on Amazon, or directly from the Associated Press. Acceptable paperback versions: 2022-2024 edition (ISBN 978-1541601659) or 2020-2022 edition (ISBN 978-1541647572). Digital version available at: <https://store.stylebooks.com/apstylebookonline.html> or <http://www.apstylebook.com/>
- ▶ Microsoft Word. This is the required format for stories so I can provide feedback.
- ▶ Somewhere to save your work. Reliable cloud storage, memory card, laptop, etc. You must save and revise articles for your Portfolio at the end of the semester.

Recommended

- ▶ A Google Docs account. This is for feedback and editing of your major writing assignments. (You'll need this by late February. I will provide details.)

How This Course Works

- ▶ Sunday nights: You'll have a Comment and Contribution (C+C) due on Canvas by 11:59 p.m.
- ▶ Tuesdays: We'll have class in LNCO 2120, 2-3:20 p.m.
- ▶ Tuesday nights: You'll have an article and/or quiz due on Canvas by 11:59 p.m.
- ▶ Work at your own pace on Canvas: Readings, comments and other work are asynchronous to give you flexibility. You can do them anytime before they're due.
- ▶ Deadlines are real. Canvas will lock 1 minute after each deadline. This includes story submissions. Note due dates and times.
- ▶ The Syllabus, Modules and the Canvas calendar will remind you of assignment deadlines. (Also note: Later in the semester, we will not meet every single week; check the Calendar.) Questions? Let me know.

Course Goals

By the end of this class, you should be able to:

1. Gather information, verify facts and write on deadline.
2. Write well, with correct grammar, style, mechanics and structure.
3. Write clear, compelling leads for news and feature stories.
4. Build on leads to write more complex stories.
5. Use a variety of sources to provide context, accuracy and balance.
6. Tell stories—use quotations and description to bring a narrative to life.
7. Write stories that engage with public audiences.

University Policies

- ▶ Coronavirus information and university policies:
  - The university encourages people to take advantage of COVID-19 testing services. Voluntary asymptomatic testing is also available for members of the campus community.
  - There are policies in case you test positive for COVID-19; at this website see “Steps to Take for COVID-19 Symptoms or Exposure”. If you have been exposed or are experiencing symptoms, self-report and follow university guidelines for exposure.
  - University leadership urges “all faculty, students, and staff to model the vaccination, masking, testing and self-reporting behaviors we want to see in our campus community.” See current instructional guidelines.
- ▶ Academic Integrity: Because C+Cs and quizzes are online, I trust you to do your own work. University policies on plagiarism and honesty are here (see Section IV and Section V).
- ▶ ADA: The U seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services and activities. If you need accommodation, contact the Center for Disability and Access, Union Building Room 162; 801-581-5020; info@disability.utah.edu.
- ▶ Content Accommodation: This course—like journalism—might expose you to things you find discomfoting. I will not make accommodations in course content, requirements, or expectations. (See “Instruction and Evaluation,” Section III, Part Q, “Accommodations.”)
- ▶ Safety: The U has safety tips and FAQs for wellness, crime prevention, and emergencies. Commuter Services offers Safe Ride. Campus police: 801-585-COPS (801-585-2677).
- ▶ Respect: The Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action is dedicated to providing a fair and equitable environment for all to pursue their academic and professional endeavors and to equally access University programs. Violence and harassment based on sex and gender (including orientation and identity/expression) is a civil-rights offense and is treated the same as those against race, national origin, color, religion, age, disabled status, veteran’s status, or genetic information.
- ▶ Semester calendar: Check the Registrar’s calendar for key dates.
